Defense

Bidding and the Play of the Hand are important, but bridge players are defenders more often than declarers. Want some strategies to tell your partner to switch of a new suit, or “legally” tell your partner what suit to lead next? We will spend five weeks on leads, attitude and suit preference aspects of defense.

Prerequisite: basic knowledge of bidding and the play of the hand.

Dates: Tuesdays, April 2 – May 7; no class on April 16

Time: 7-9pm

Cost: $40; no book required

Two Over One – Let’s take it to the next level!!

This 6-week class for two over one players reviews bidding sequences, including when to use 1NT forcing and when to NOT use 1NT forcing, and all of the ways to make game forcing bids. And ... let’s now add two new conventions for major suit game forcing bids: splinter bids and Jacoby 2NT. Lots of practice bidding and some fun hands to play!!

Cost: $45; no book
